April 2, 2018

The meeting was called to order at 5:30 by Chairman Randy Vance at the Hillsview Clubhouse. Present at the meeting were Randy Vance, Scott Simpson, Kristy Hepper, Stacey Nelson, John Knox, Bill Gordon, Mike Bartlett & Carin Hayn, Bryan Tipton, Adam Kulesa and Tom Farnsworth.

Carin Hayn reported the phone was back on line as of April 2. Last year the driving range opened on March 25 and the course on March 28. With the later opening this year season pass sales are slow, with only 96 sold to date. One half of the carts have arrived with the balance to arrive the week of April 9. Carts will have the Hillsview logo applied to them.

Youth golf will look slightly different this year with the offering of both a basic and advanced option. The basic is designed for beginning golfers and younger players, while the advanced option will be available for youth who have had a few years of the basic instruction and are ready to take the next step. Registration for the advanced class will take place by contacting the clubhouse.

Bryan Tipton provided an update on the installation of the new pump station. Delivery was delayed until April 12, but the project should be complete prior to course opening. Greens seem to have come through the winter well, but preparation of the greens is taking place including top dressing and deep tining. These processes will allow the crew to forgo the spring aerification. Signs and stakes directing cart traffic on the fairways will be removed and a white line will be used to set cart boundaries. This should help with time needed for mowing. New sand has now been placed in all bunkers.

Tom Farnsworth said that the city is going through a five year planning process and the course crew has already submitted their equipment plan. A new rough mower and liner for the pond are proposed in this year's course budget. Much of the seasonal help will be returning from last year, but all supervisors are hiring seasonal folks for the summer.
