Rawlins Library Book November 2025: Review

This book is a classic who-dun-it mystery/suspense that is fast paced and full of many twists and turns. A young wife and mother has disappeared without a trace. The book takes you down several pathways of what really happened. Is everyone lying and who do you believe? The book kept me going until the last few chapters and then I started to figure it out. My mom read the same book and couldn't figure it out until the last few pages. I would rate this a 9.5 simply because of the amount of characters to keep track of. All in all, a good, quick read.
